

FACTS

WHAT DOES SACRAMENTO CREDIT UNION DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why? Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What? The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:

- Social Security number and income
- Account balances and payment history
- Credit history and credit scores

When you are no longer our customer, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.

How? All financial companies need to share customers' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers' personal information; the reasons Sacramento Credit Union chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

Reasons we can share your personal information	Does Sacramento Credit Union share?	Can you limit this sharing?
For our everyday business purposes— such as to process your transactions, maintain your account(s), respond to court orders and legal investigations, or report to credit bureaus	Yes	No
For our marketing purposes— to offer our products and services to you	Yes	No
For joint marketing with other financial companies	Yes	Yes
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes— information about your transactions and experiences	Yes	No
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes— information about your creditworthiness	No	We don't share
For nonaffiliates to market to you	No	We don't share

Questions? Call (888) 722-8601 or go to www.SactoCU.org

Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

Sacramento Credit Union

What we do

How does Sacramento Credit Union protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does Sacramento Credit Union collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- Open an account or apply for a loan
- Provide account information and give us your contact information
- Make deposits or withdrawals from your account

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more on your rights under state law.

Definitions

Affiliates

Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.

- Our affiliates include financial companies such as TruStage.

Nonaffiliates

Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.

- Sacramento Credit Union does not share with our nonaffiliates so they can market to you.

Joint marketing

A formal agreement between nonaffiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you.

- Our joint marketing partners include financial service providers, such as insurance companies.

Other important information

Sacramento Credit Union shares your personal information for joint marketing with other financial companies, such as TruStage. Under the California Financial Information Privacy Act you have a right to opt-out of Sacramento Credit Union sharing your information with our joint marketing partners. To exercise your choice call (888) 722-8601 or go to www.SactoCU.org.